

THE A3F

ALMOST FAMOUS FILM FESTIVAL

Recap - 48 Hour Challenge - 2014

The 10th Annual 48 Hour Short Film Challenge took place February 14-16, 2014 with 61 teams participating from Arizona and California. There was a nice mixture of returning teams and wide-eyed rookies!

"We asked some of our veteran teams to come back and make one more film for our 10th Anniversary." said Jae Staats, A3F Director and Founder, "We also had quite a few new teams and past winners so the quality of the films this year was fantastic."

This year's guidelines asked the filmmakers to create 1-5 minute films using the Theme, Temptation, a Line of Dialogue, "This should be interesting." and a Button as the Prop where one or more characters had to press some sort of button.

In addition to watching the films, Cydney Rooks and Paul Elliott, the 2013-14 A3F Scholarship recipients, received their official certificates and were welcomed into the A3F family.

And in one of the more emotional moments of the night, Jessica Brown, mother of Brock H. Brown, presented the Best Script Award named after her son to Squishy Studios. "Mrs. Brown and her family have been amazing supporters of the A3F and we are just so honored by their friendship as we continue to keep Brock's spirit alive." said Jae.

After the films played, the awards ceremony commenced with several teams taking home custom A3F 3D trophies that became the hit of the night! "This was the best Top 20 I've seen" and "Wow, those films were just so good." rang out in the hallways as people left the theatre.

download RESULTS

download TEAMS

"Thanks again for an awesome night, was a lot of fun!" -- Matt Evans, team leader for ThinkTank Creative.

"What a great night of films. They definitely were the best I've seen so far."
— Adolpho Navarro, team leader for N'Rgaed Media.

www.THEA3F.net